Game Name -- Buhido Showdown

About:

The Game is a Multiplayer TPP Deathmatch format-based shooter game set in a Japanese era where the Bushidos (Japanese people who spend their life as samurai) divided into 2 teams, fight to establish their dominance over the Japanese floating city called Buhido. The game is played in the colosseum of the floating city 'Buhido'. Up to 10 player can join at once and the game is published on the CORE store and is played by more than 20 people from the game community till now. The game is developed using CORE Games engine which is a kind of 3D construction kit on top of UNREAL game engine which makes it easy to develop games using their free assets and UI based development. 'LUA' is used as the programming language for writing the scripts
